

Past paper 2015

define entrepreneurship?

define corporate entrepreneurship?

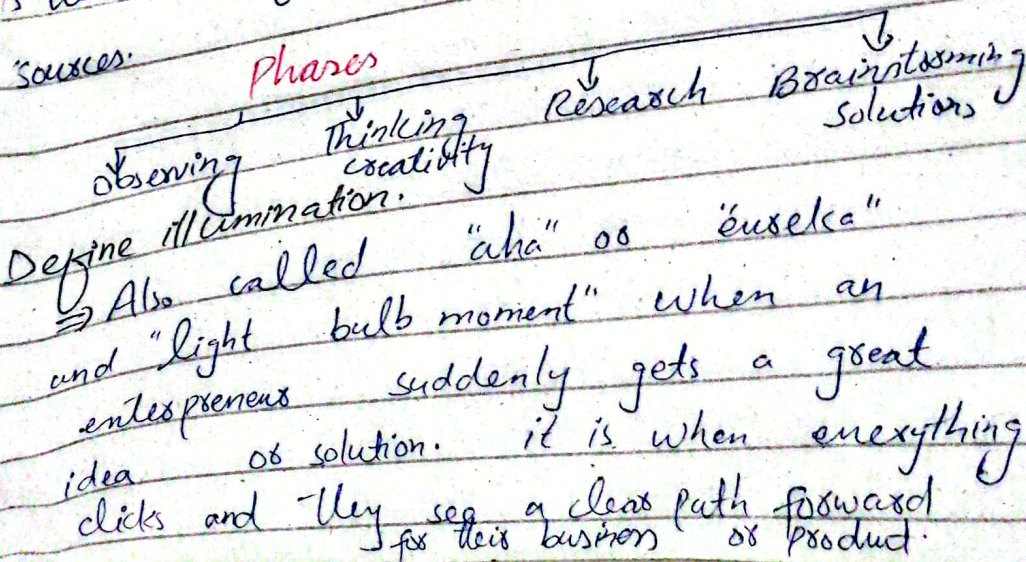

name the popular myths of entrepreneurship?

what is idea germination?

Idea germination is the initial phase of creativity process.

It is the foundational stage where an entrepreneur's creativity and observation skills are combined to generate a new business concept or innovation.

It is the moment when an entrepreneur comes up with a new idea or identifies an opportunity that could potentially be turned into a successful business. It is the birth of concept, come from various sources.

Define creative source?

⇒ Refer to the origin or inspiration behind innovative ideas, products or solutions.

⇒ These ideas come from:

- o Personal experience and insights
- o Observing what customers need/want
- o Listening to customer feedback
- o Using new technologies
- o Collaborating with others
- o Doing research & development
- o Drawing inspiration from culture or nature.

Name the success factors of entrepreneurship

⇒ Key elements that contribute to the success of a business ventures

- o Passion & Commitment
- o Clear vision
- o Innovation
- o Market knowledge
- o Skilled Team
- o Customer focus
- o Networking
- o Financial management

2. Define business relationships in entrepreneurial networks?

⇒ Refer to the connections and interactions that entrepreneurs establish with other individuals or entities to support their business goals.

⇒ These relationship involves:

Support o Collaboration o Information sharing
Access to resources o Growth opportunities.

2. Define organizational relationships in entrepreneurial networks?

⇒ Connections and interactions between different groups involved in the business.

⇒ These include:

- o Team relationships
- o Partnerships
- o Suppliers & vendors
- o Mentors & advisors

Crucial for shaping the development, operation & success of the business.

Q. Define the concept of "windows" and "corridors" for new ventures?

Venture:

⇒ New business idea or project started by someone who wants to make it successful.

⇒ Like starting a new adventure in business world.

Windows:

- Opportunities and moments where the venture can quickly learn and grow.
- Chance for business to expand, innovate or make progress.

Corridors:

- Long-term paths for development
- Represent sustained efforts & processes that venture follows over time.

Q. What is the objective of market research analysis?

- Understand needs & preferences of customers
- Find out what competitors are doing?

Figure out if there is a good opportunity to succeed with a new business idea.

⇒ Like doing a detective work to gather information and make smart decisions about starting a new business.

Q. Explain high-tech products?

⇒ Things that used advanced technology to do cool stuff.

⇒ High-tech products are those that incorporate advanced technology to offer innovative solutions or features that addresses market needs, enhance user experience, differentiate from competitors and potentially make a substantial impact on the world.

Example:

Smartphones — Connectivity option

Sci.

⇒ A product that is made using the most modern technical knowledge and methods is called high tech product.

What is opportunistic entrepreneurship?

⇒ When someone sees a chance to start a business or make money in a situation that unexpectedly arises.

⇒ it's about being quick to spot and seize opportunities that others might look.

⇒ They are flexible rather than following a predetermined plan.

⇒ Turning unexpected situations into business ventures.

⇒ it requires quick thinking and adaptability.

⇒ it is about being flexible and open-minded enough to recognize & act on opportunities as they arise.

Q. Difference b/w invention & innovation?

Invention	Innovation
Definition: Creation of entirely new product, process or idea.	Improvement or modification of existing product, process or idea.

Focus:

Creating something new from scratch.

Enhancing or modifying existing creations.

Risk:

Higher risk due to uncertainty.

Lower risk as it builds upon existing concepts.

Time:

Requires more time.

Generally faster.

Resources:

Requires significant resources.

Requires fewer resources.

ex

Building new smartphone.

ex

Adding new features.

Q. What are the elements of marketing plans?

⇒ Executive Summary

⇒ Market Research

⇒ Target Market

⇒ Marketing Objective

⇒ Marketing Strategies

⇒ Marketing Mix

⇒ Budget

⇒ Action Plan

⇒ SWOT Analysis

⇒ Contingency Plan